Order No. 905

Dated:- 10/6/24

All the Tutor's Incharges / O.I / H.O.D of the institute are requested to ensure that all eligible students from your respective branches have applied for the Merit-cum-Means Scholarship on the designated portal.

To streamline the process and support our students effectively, please adhere to the following directives:

1. Verification of Applications: Kindly verify that all eligible students in your branch have submitted their applications on the scholarship portal. This is crucial to ensure that no student misses out on this valuable opportunity due to oversight.

2. Assistance with Application Difficulties: If any student encounters difficulties or issues while applying, please compile a list of such students and forward this information to the scholarship branch immediately. We are committed to providing the necessary support to ensure all eligible students can complete their applications without hindrance.

3. Accountability for Missed Applications: It is imperative that all eligible students apply for the scholarship. If any eligible student fails to apply, the responsibility will rest with the concerned tutor. Therefore, please make every effort to communicate with your students and assist them throughout the application process.

By ensuring that every eligible student applies for the Merit-cum-Means Scholarship, we uphold our commitment to fostering educational equity and support within our institute. Your cooperation and diligence in this matter are greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your attention and prompt action on this matter.
